

Now It's Your Turn!

Do you want to be a superhero like me?

You don't need a mask, just a big heart and the right choices! Here's how you can be super every day:

- 1 Help others whenever you can.
- 2 Always tell the truth.
- 3 Be kind to everyone, even when no one is watching.
- 4 Show respect to your family, teachers, and friends.
- 5 Be happy for others and say thank you often.
- 6 Be brave enough to do what's right, even when it's not easy.

Super Me

The Adventures of Zayd the Brave

Hi, I'm Zayd!

I may not have superpowers, but I'm a real superhero because I make the right choices every day. Want to know how?

Let me tell you!

Zayd & Yusuf

Kindness

One bright morning, I was walking to school when I saw a younger boy, Yusuf, struggling with his heavy school bag. Some kids laughed at him, but I knew that wasn't right.

What would a superhero do?
That's right—help!

So, I walked up to him and said, "Let me help you!" Together, we carried his bag to the classroom. Super !!

Helping others makes you a real superhero.

Respect

Later during recess, my friends and I were playing soccer when the ball hit Umar.

He looked upset, and I felt bad. What would a hero do? I ran over and said, "I'm really sorry, Umar. Are you okay?"

Then I helped him dust off his uniform and made sure he felt better.

Treating others with respect makes you super.

Cheering Others

In class, our teacher announced a contest, and the winner would get a big prize! I worked really hard, but I didn't win.

At first, I felt a little sad, but then I saw how happy my friend Bilal was. Instead of feeling bad, I smiled and said, "Congratulations, Bilal! You did great!"

Being happy for others makes your heart shine.

That night, my parents told me, "Zayd, you are a real hero—not because of powers, but because of your heart." I smiled and whispered, "I am Super Me!"
